RAIL FUND ON TRACK

By Matthew Stanton

waltham.yellowad.co.uk

A CAMPAIGN group is celebrating after a contract was awarded to firm to carry out electrification works along a 12-mile railway line.

Members of Barking to Gospel Oak Rail User Group have been fighting since 2007 for changes on the line, claiming the current diesel trains are 'seriously overcrowded'.

Network Rail has awarded a £56.9m contract to J Murphy and Sons to electrify the Barking to Gospel Oak railway line. However, work will not start until summer 2016 and that is expected to be finished by June 2017, when passengers in Waltham Forest, Redbridge and Barking and Dagenham will benefit.

Glenn Wallis, secretary of Barking to Gospel Oak Rail User Group, said: "Passengers will continue to be crushed into the existing two-car diesels during the week until next summer."

The grant, which will be over three years, is to give helpers over the age of 65 can access support, advice and respite, as well have greater awareness around benefits, finance and housing rights.

Lorraine Goldberg, executive director of the charity, said: "Every year we identify around 1000 new carers and we are delighted that we have received a grant over three years from the City of London

Corporation's charity.

"The grant will allow us to work with carers in need of vital targeted information and support.

"We will help them to navigate through a complex health and care system and we will be able to offer a welfare benefits service, one to one carer support and access to range of other services available to carers including peer support groups and training."

The grant from City Bridge Trust will directly benefit over 300 carers in the borough.

In the past 20 years, the City of London Corporation's charity, City Bridge Trust, has awarded grants totalling a third of a billion pounds to charitable organisations tackling disadvantage in London.

Catering award for Longbridge

A SCHOOL cook has been crowned caterer of the year.

Lisa Morris, cook supervisor at Manor Longbridge School, in Sandringham Road, Barking, won Primary School Caterer of the Year at the EDUcatering Excellence Awards. The awards were held on Tuesday, October 13, at the prestigious Royal Garden Hotel in Kensington, and welcomed over 350 catering professionals to celebrate those who had been shortlisted.

Lisa was nominated for the award because of her success in inspiring young people to grow food, eat and enjoy healthy school meals.

She said: "I can't believe this, I am absolutely over the moon to be recognised as the best in the UK. I could not have achieved this award without the support of Barking and Dagenham Catering Services."

Lisa re-designed the school dining experience by creating an al fresco restaurant in the school's courtyard, covering tables with tablecloths and laying cutlery and serviettes to encourage good table manners. She also introduced a new planting and growing scheme to help teach young children where food comes from and has delivered exciting assemblies on the importance of healthy eating.

The school's menu include new dishes, including Lisa's award-winning Moroccan turkey tagine.

"The two carriages are packed solid and are leaving people behind in the mornings and evenings. We will be stuck with two carriages for well over a year. There will be more reports of fights breaking out because the trains are too full."

"We are keen to hear from commuters about what replacement bus and alternative rail, tube and bus ticket acceptances they would like to see in place during the line closure so we can discuss their needs with TfL."

The Goblin project is to see the old diesel stock trains replaced with cleaner, electric trains.

The scheme is also to provide an alternative freight path from the Thames Estuary docks. In June, transport firm, Bombardier, won the contract to build 45 new trains for London Overground, eight of which are to serve Gospel Oak to Barking post-electrification.

The Gospel Oak to Barking Line, which stops at stations that include Wanstead Park, Leytonstone High Road, Leyton Midland Road, Walthamstow Queens Road and Blackhorse Road, carries both through freight trains and London Overground passenger trains.

Network Rail said: "This investment will pave the way for longer and more spacious trains transforming rail travel for thousands of people who rely on this route every day."

Hospice's plan to take on 500 more children a year

SERVICE: Mike Palfreman, chief executive of Haven House Children's Hospice, will oversee ambitious plans to take on extra children by 2020

By Matthew Stanton

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

A HOSPICE has launched an ambitious plan to take on an extra 500 children a year with life-limiting conditions.

Haven House Children's Hospice's initiative 'Vision 2020 - The Best Possible Life' is looking to increase the care it provides by the end of the decade.

The changes will also see the hospice, which has cared for 329 children since last year, expand its catchment area.

Mike Palfreman, chief executive of Haven House Children's Hospice, hopes the increase will see more families from the local area accessing the hospice's care services.

He said: "We are providing care and support to more life-limited children and their families than ever before, but it is still the case that not enough families are accessing hospice care services in our local area.

"This may be due to a lack of awareness of the range of services that we offer, or because families are afraid that using a hospice is an acceptance that their child will not outlive them.

"Yet hospices are here to support children as well as parents, siblings and the wider family.

"Parents need to know a significant proportion of the care that we provide is respite; it is not predominantly about death and dying."

Haven House Foundation was set up in 1995 to meet the needs of families of children with life-limiting conditions.

In 2000, the lease was secured on The White House, in Woodford Green, and the building was refurbished. Over the 11 years the hospice has provided care for over 500 families.

Orient show support for charity walk

LEYTON Orient has sponsored a charity event run by a hospice.

The Sky Bet League Two club is supporting Haven House Children's Hospice's 'Pumpkin Plod', which takes place from The White House, in High Road, Woodford Green, on Sunday, October 25.

The annual family fundraiser will see people walk either 2k, 5k or 10k dressed in orange.

Leyton Orient star Dean Cox said: "I've been coming here for more than six years and it's great for the club to show our support to the kids and their families.

"We help with fundraising as much as we can through match day collections and other events. Haven House is very close to Leyton Orient's hearts."

The midfielder visited the hospice's Holistic Care Centre on Friday, October 16.

Mike Palfreman, chief executive of Haven House, said: "Leyton Orient have been strong supporters of Haven

House for many years and it's great to have them backing the pumpkin plod.

"We really value the club's time and commitment to local life-limited children and their families.

"Dean has visited the hospice several times before and we are always impressed with his enthusiasm and dedication."

To book your place on the walk visit www.entrycentral.com/pumpkinplod, email events@havenhouse.org.uk or call 020 8498 5849.

School joins in on charity run

A CHIGWELL school took part in a half marathon for Cancer Research UK. More than 100 parents, staff and former students from Chigwell School, in High Road, ran 13 miles through London's Hyde Park.

The team joined 16,000 others on a scenic route past Green Park, St James Park, the Houses of Parliament and Buckingham Palace.

Gill Punt, Chigwell School's development manager, said: "The adventurous team rose to the challenge magnificently with all completing the race in the glorious sunshine. Aching legs but beaming smiles were the order of the day."

Last year, the school raised £40,000 for Cancer Research UK.

The school is counting this year's total but staff believe they have raised well over £70,000.

I Walk the Line

From Thames to Roach

WALK 4: Thorpe Bay Station/Shopland Hall
Start/finish point: (51.537570, 0.76176000)
Distance: 8.3 miles

Time: 3-4 hrs

Terrain: Mostly flat/easy

History: St Mary Magdalen built in the 12th century and demolished in 1957. The graveyard is just off the footpath, so ask permission from tea rooms (51.56197, 0.73805)

Two landowners asked me where I was going as I tramped the footpaths from the River Thames to the River Roach on Thursday. I'm not sure whether they were being friendly or nosey, but either way, they seemed happy to guide me.

There are no car parks into the wilds that surround Great Stambridge Hall, Mucking Hall, Barton Hall and Roper's Farm. And that's no bad thing, as the walk from Thorpe Bay Station works fine.

In mid autumn, the farmland is a mixture of stubble and freshly ploughed field. Horses and their young riders gallop across bare fields that less than three months ago were draped in summer crops.

The footpath cuts through occasional, but rare woodland. Inside Muckinghall Wood, just west of Gallows Field (lot of horrid history in these parts too) is a fishing lake. Herons fly overhead and rabbits scurry under blackberry vines still sagging in unpicked and rotting fruit.

The trail passes Shopland on the return home. Once a civil parish with its own Norman church and community, almost everything has now gone, including the St Mary Magdalen. Only gravestones remain, surrounded by snapdragons, violets and white flowering nettles. Services are held once a year to rededicate the site. The graveyard is a worthy resting place, followed maybe by a cuppa and cake at the cafe.

And if someone asks where you're going, politely explain you're paying your respects to the past.

New Avensis to keep fleet boss happy

By Ian Donaldson

BET you couldn't shell enough peas for dinner in 66 seconds. Toyota, on the other hand, produces a new car in that time from its plant near Derby – hour after hour.

Many of them are the new Avensis, for long a core car in the tough world of business transport, where glitz and glamour have to fight their corner against level-headed fleet managers.

The driver of the latest Avensis might wish he was really driving a BMW, so looks and driving performance are going to be vital to keep him happy in a rather more everyday machine.

The fleet manager, who selects the cars our driver can choose from, could care not a jot for the sweep of a radiator grille or the glint of spokes on an alloy wheel.

He will be concentrating instead on price, reliability, running costs and resale value when the car is swapped for a new one in three years' time.

Most Avensis models are sold for company use and most are powered by a diesel engine. So no surprise that this new version line-up is heavy with diesels – and carrying Business Edition tags too.

Attention to detail from a host of engineers has produced the new 1.6-litre diesel in the car tested here which makes less pollution than the 2.0-litre it replaces (ditto the new 2.0-litre diesel versus the old 2.2 engine) and both have stretched service intervals, now 12,500 miles, and cheaper servicing costs over a three-year haul. All of which is music to the fleet manager's ears.

The driver, especially if paying for fuel, will appreciate an eight per cent improvement in the official average consumption; now better than 67mpg.

As ever, that's a laboratory-based figure that flatters real world results, but the 55mpg shown on the test car's trip computer is good going for a big saloon with a decent turn of speed.

The new Avensis range starts at £18,085 for an Active grade car powered by a 1.8-litre petrol engine, so it's likely to be a rare beast in the UK, where petrol and business use go together like England, rugby and winning. That buys a four-door saloon (Touring Sport estates add £1,180) that comes with safety gear including a pre-collision system that shouts at you if it thinks there's a danger of hitting the car in front and will brake if you don't react quickly – potentially halting the car before it hits anything.

The Business Edition models add a lane departure alert that alerts a driver if the car crosses lane markings without signalling.

If you find this irritating, preferring to make your own mind up about signals, the system can be disabled.

The test car also has road sign assist, with a camera reading speed limit displays and posting them to the dash.

Business user-friendly goodies on the Business Edition Plus test car included a fine sat-nav system, excellent reversing camera, DAB radio, 17in alloy wheels, LED headlamps, part-leather trim and a driver's seat with lumbar adjustment, but not heating.

Hardly anyone bothers with a handbrake at the lights these days and the Avensis won't tempt a driver to show courtesy to the dazed driver behind, with a tiny parking brake lever hidden in the dash and a nuisance to use.

Other than that, the latest Avensis looks set for a hard life on the road that both gently pleases its driver and keeps the fleet manager happy or as happy as fleet managers ever are.

O'S PULL OFF ANOTHER POINT SAVER

WORDS: Orient boss Ian Hendon

Football

Luton Town 1 Leyton Orient 1 By Rowland Lyons at Kenilworth Road

JAY Simpson, once again, was Orient's saviour as they battled back to gain an important Sky Bet League Two point against John Still's Hatters on Tuesday night.

Boss, Ian Hendon, made two changes from last Saturday's Oxford draw and continued with Ollie Palmer and Jack Payne, who were influential substitutes in that marvellous comeback.

The O's still had the momentum from the weekend and made a bright start, with Bradley Pritchard and Sean Clohessy dangerous down the right flank.

Apart from an early blip that almost saw Adam Marriott bag an unlikely opener - such was the east Londoners' domination - the visitors carried on creating openings and ought to have been ahead on 16 minutes - but loan man, John Marquis, was unlucky to see Mark Tyler pull off a smart save from his close range effort.

Orient were well on top, but were left ruing Jack Payne and Sammy Moore failing to hit the target with presentable opportunities.

But, sloppy goals have blighted Orient's season, so far, and on 32 minutes Dan Potts was allowed too much time and space to cross for Marriott to bundle home from six yards as the visitors were looking for an offside flag.

The O's hit back, but Luton were content to soak up the pressure, although Marquis was well off target after Payne and Palmer had combined.

The boisterous travelling support didn't have wait long - though - as within two minutes of the restart Simpson levelled with his eleventh goal of a burgeoning season in front of goal, after Clohessy pumped in a wicked cross that split the Luton defence. Simpson then got in front of marker, Scott Cuthbert, and drove high into the middle of Tyler's goal.

Despite dominating the possession for the remainder of a very mild evening, Luton created the better chances and Marriott again went close after the O's defence had worryingly again switched off, before Cisak made a rare save to deny Hatters' man-of-the-match, Cameron McGheehan.

Late sub, Dean Cox, showed some good touches, but having lost Palmer to what Hendon described as a 'tight hamstring', the visitors ended the game with one up front, to leave the manager admitting: "It's always a tough, tough place [to come to] and I am most definitely pleased with the point against John Still's side."

"I said in my pre-match [interview] it was going to be a tough game - and that's how it turned out."

"Again, we had a few words at half-time - a few more than we had last Saturday - to be honest. I was very disappointed in the way we conceded the goal. We keep giving away cheap, sloppy goals. A deflected ball in the box and we didn't get a tackle in."

"But, we came out in the second-half and battled back - again. We are making a bit of a habit of that at the moment."

Hendon paid tribute to Simpson: "He's loving every minute of training and playing, at the moment, and he's a pleasure to have. We put the ball in and give him service and he gets goals."

"You had two teams out there tonight trying to win the game. We didn't sit there and defend. At the end we lost Ollie and it sort of changed how we played. Especially away from home, we need those sort of players."

Hendon concluded: "I think, again, we have created chances and I think we had the better ones to be honest. But, I am very aware we need to keep clean sheets. That is key. It's not for the lack of trying or work on the training ground. We are scoring goals, but we have to keep that back door shut."

Luton Town: Mark Tyler, Sean Long, Luke Wilkinson, Scott Cuthbert (captain), Dan Potts, Paddy McCourt (Luke Gutteridge 64), Jonathan Smith, Ollie Lee (Nathan Doyle 57), Sean Long, Jack Marriott, Craig Mackail-Smith (Josh McQuoid 76).

Referee: Tim Robinson

Non-league round-up

Superb display by Hornchurch

By Brian Jeeves

GEORGE Purcell was once again amongst the goals as AFC Hornchurch produced a superb display on the road to dispatch Wroxham.

Purcell grabbed an impressive hat-trick, while David Knight was also on target as the Urchins won this Ryman League One North contest by four goals to nil in Norfolk.

Thurrock also proved to be away day specialists, thrashing Great Wakering Rovers 4-1 at Burroughs Park. Remi Sutton, David Cowley, Ross Wall and a Jordan Clark penalty ensured the points returned to Ship Lane. Tom Ranger grabbed the villagers' consolation.

Romford saw off Redbridge 3-0, while Anthony Martin bagged the only goal as Tilbury saw off Heybridge Swifts at St Chads Road. But there was disappointment for Barkingside, who despite a brace from Tyrone Scarlett, went down 3-2 at Witham Town.

Elsewhere in Division One North, Aveley slipped to a 3-1 defeat at Soham Town Rangers, and Maldon & Tiptree crashed 3-0 at home to Waltham Abbey.

In the Ryman Premier Division, Joseph Ellul and Loui Hazlewood scored either side of the interval as Billericay Town beat Leatherhead 2-0 at New Lodge. Richard Halle grabbed the only goal at Park Lane as Canvey Island continued their recent good form. Harrow Borough becoming the Gulls' latest victims.

Grays Athletic were in fantastic form, hitting four without reply past Lewes. East Thurrock United played out an exciting 2-2 draw at Bognor Regis Town. Mitchell Gilbey and Sam Higgins with the Rocks' goals.

But it was a bad day at the office for Brentwood Town who crashed 4-0 at Dulwich Hamlet.

In the National League, Braintree Town's recent good run came to an end at Lincoln City. Terry Hawkridge and Liam Hearn grabbed second half goals as the Imps ran out 2-0 winners.

Chelmsford City returned to winning ways in the National League South. Matthew Whichelow scored in each half as the Clarets won 2-1 at Basingstoke Town. Meanwhile Concord Rangers' indifferent start to the campaign continued. The Beach Boys slumped to a 3-0 defeat to Hayes & Yeading United. Josh Scott scored twice for the visitors with former Southend United striker Elliot Benyon grabbing the other.

The big derby match in the Essex Senior League saw Basildon United end leaders Bowers & Pitsea's unbeaten start. Brad Warner and Brad Hunter found the net as the Bees ran out 2-1 winners at the Len Salmon Stadium.

Stephen Solarin grabbed a hat trick as Southend Manor hammered Enfield 1893 4-0 at Southchurch Park Arena. Jeff Okirie hit Manor's other goal. Ilford won 2-0 against Newham FC at Cricklefield Stadium, with Barking edged out Sporting Bengal United 2-1.

Hullbridge Sports went down 2-0 at Sawbridgeworth Town, while their was nothing between Burnham Ramblers and Tower Hamlets who drew 1-1 at Leslie Field.

Selected action in the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League. Alf Lingfield, Jamie Brown and Darren Burrell found the net as White Ensign won their Premier Division clash at Newbury Forest 3-1. Meanwhile in Division One, Basildon Town triumphed 4-2 at Old Chelmsfordians. Reece Conway (2), Daniel Lee-Wilkins and Jack Main on target for the Newtowners.

AmD look to run third car in BTCC next season

Motor Sport

AmDTuning.com has announced plans to expand its Dunlop MSA British Touring Car Championship programme and launch a three-car assault on the 2016 season.

The West Thurrock-based team made the successful move to become a two-car outfit in 2015 - running a second car in five of the ten events - and will now seek to find further expand its involvement in Britain's premier racing series during its seventh season in the championship.

Work has already started on the build of a second Audi S3, which will be fitted with the latest NGTC parts from the BTCC's new technical partner RML.

Subject to being granted a third TOCA BTCC Licence (TBL) by series bosses, the team plans to field two Audis in 2016 alongside the Ford Focus it has campaigned for the past two seasons.

Discussions have already started with potential drivers who are interested in racing with the team next year, with no fewer than half a dozen currently vying for the vacant seats.

The team is also actively seeking to strengthen its engineering team as part of the expansion plans.

Team boss Shaun Holmby said: Mike Bushell, Jake Hill and Nicolas Hamilton did a fantastic job for us in 2015, and we would be keen to have them on board again next year.

"There are also a number of other drivers who have expressed an interest in joining us for 2016, and we are in discussions over the various options that are available."
